

As a member of ARES in the State of Virginia I have concerns about the nature of BPL and the interference it causes over the High Frequency Bands. The level of interference may render the frequencies on which we operate useless to emergency communications in the event of either a natural or manmade calamity.